To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to offer my recommendation for Anthony Arno and his engaging presentation, The Mother Road at 100: Voices of Route 66.

We had the pleasure of hosting Mr. Arno at the Lincoln Highway Experience on March 21, 2026, where he delivered an interesting and thoughtfully crafted program that incorporated testimony and history of the historic route from many individuals with personal connections to Route 66. Drawing on his extensive research and dozens of episodes of The Route 66 Podcast – which he hosts – Anthony brings the history and culture of Route 66 to life through rich storytelling, firsthand accounts, and a deep appreciation for the people and places that define America’s most iconic highway.

What sets this presentation apart is the literal voices recorded from the podcast which are played throughout the program. The addition of an optional interactive trivia segment at the conclusion of his talk further enhances the experience, encouraging audience participation and leaving attendees with a lasting impression.

Anthony’s professionalism, passion, and depth of knowledge make him a valuable addition to any lecture series, conference, or public program. His presentation not only celebrates the centennial of Route 66 but also underscores its enduring significance in American culture and the broader narrative of road travel.

I highly recommend Anthony Arno and The Mother Road at 100: Voices of Route 66 to any organization seeking a dynamic, educational, and memorable program.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Spencer Simpson
